Planet Hollywood Resort & Casino Review - The New Home to the Stars in Las Vegas

 By Stephan Martin

The newest restaurant to join Planet Hollywood is Yolo's Mexican Grill. This is not your ordinary mexican grill, I mean come on we are in Vegas. Yolo's certainly fits in with the Planet Hollywood theme, with the brightness and vibrant colors that accompany the fun and party atmosphere that is always happening. You will find the gorgeous bar and staff are just as popular as the restaurant itself, as they put the over sixty variations of tequila to good use, mixing up a wide variety of drinks that are far from what you will find at most bars in Las Vegas. From the sizzling fajitas to the authentic street tacos, Yolo's does a fantastic job providing great mexican food. One tip for you, if you like guacamole, order the guacamole fresca. This is a real treat and fun for your table as your server comes out with fresh avocados and prepares the guacamole right at your table.
