CLASSICS

Scotch Old Fashioned 13.

John Barr Scotch Whisky, Muddled Sugar, Cherry, Angostura Bitters and Fresh Orange Slices

Prior to Prohibition, muddled cherry and orange slices were a necessary response to inferior liquor. With Repeal, the Old Fashioned sported a new look with loads of fresh fruit and seltzer water.

Moscow Mule 13.

New Amsterdam Citron Flavored Vodka, Fresh Lime Juice, and Fever-Tree Ginger Beer

The Moscow Mule was invented in 1941 by John G. Martin of Heublein Brothers and "Jack" Morgan, proprietor of the Cock 'n' Bull Restaurant on Sunset Boulevard in LA.

Classic Dirty Martini 13.

Tito's Vodka, Pacific Coast Olive Juice and Bleu Cheese Olives

This drink came about one morning when FDR commented to Stalin that he was feeling a little hung-over at the Yalta Conference. Churchill reached into his valise and produced a bottle of gin and a jar of olives and the new cocktail was born.

52nd & Broadway 13.

Bulleit Rye Whiskey, Carpano Antico Vermouth and Old Fashioned Bitters

Where the Gallagher's tradition began! The original "Manhattan cocktail" was a mix of "American Whiskey, Italian Vermouth and Angostura bitters."

GALLAGHER'S STEAKHOUSE, AN ORIGINAL SINCE 1927

Gallagher's Steakhouse was founded in New York City in November, 1927 by former Ziegfeld girl, Helen Gallagher, and the colorful gambler and sports enthusiast, Jack Solomon.

One of the first speakeasy gathering places for gamblers, sports figures and stars on Broadway, the restaurant opened next door to the Alvin Theater in the Manhattan Theater District, just nights before the premiere of "Funny Face."

Famous for its New York Dry-Aged Steak prepared on an open mesquite grill, Gallagher's Steakhouse in Las Vegas opened at New York - New York Hotel & Casino in 1997, and continues to uphold the long-held traditions of the landmark New York City location.

We offer the finest beef, dry-aged on the bone, following three weeks of wet aging. We then broil our steaks on an open mesquite grill for a flavor found only at Gallagher's Steakhouse.

Gallagher's is a Trans Fat-Free Menu
